A STATEMENT OF THE CONSIDERATIONS WHICH INTERESTED THE SENATE OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, 1852.

To a friend in Philadelphia.

We respect the sincerity which appears to lie beneath the public iniquity of a certain Northern State, to the northward of us. We doubt not that, if it were possible, many of them might be able to escape our view; but the state, as it now stands, is disposed to treat us with contempt. They are not disposed to treat us with equal justice, though we must not be deemed to have the advantage of the situation. They are not disposed to treat us with equal justice, though we must not be deemed to have the advantage of the situation.

In the text, it may be necessary to consider the situation of Maryland, and the state of the country, as it now stands.

We believe, that, in the present state of the country, the power of the legislature of Maryland, is disposed to treat us with equal justice, though we must not be deemed to have the advantage of the situation.

The text is not intended as a basis for the discussion of the subject of slavery. It is intended to state the considerations which interest the Senate of the General Assembly of Maryland, in their present situation.

There are many considerations which interest the Senate of the General Assembly of Maryland, in their present situation.

We are not at liberty to say.

On the other hand, we have been much injured by the system of slavery, which is now in operation, in the state of Maryland. It is our duty to consider the state of affairs, as it now stands.

We are not at liberty to say, that we are not at liberty to say that we are not at liberty to say that we are not at liberty to say.

In the text, we shall state the considerations which interest the Senate of the General Assembly of Maryland, in their present situation.

We believe, that, in the present state of the country, the power of the legislature of Maryland, is disposed to treat us with equal justice, though we must not be deemed to have the advantage of the situation.

We are not at liberty to say, that we are not at liberty to say that we are not at liberty to say.

We are not at liberty to say, that we are not at liberty to say that we are not at liberty to say.